1. Associate Partners of LG Action – networking linking

The following local government associations / networks have signed a letter of cooperation and are active linking to LG Action:

Council of Europe (COE)

The Congress of Local and Regional Authorities

www.coe.int/congress

„The Congress welcomes and supports the LG Action project. I can assure you that we will make every effort to encourage local and regional authorities across Europe to join this initiative.“

- Ian Micallef, President ad interim of the Congress of Local and Regional Authorities of the Council of Europe

Council of European Municipalities and Regions (CEMR)

www.ccre.org

“We would like to express our commitment to further cooperating with you on the issues addressed in the LG Action project ... Promote among our members the LG Action project and its added value both for local and regional authorities and their representative national associations.”

- Angelika Poth-Mögele, Director of Policy, CEMR

Union of the Baltic Cities (UBC)

Commission on Environment

- Björn Grönholm, Head of Secretariat, UBC, Environmental and Sustainable Development Secretariat

2. Join us at the upcoming Hamburg City Climate Conference

Many different events are feeding into the LG Action item collection process – clarifying what local governments regard as important issues to be raised on what works well with local climate action, what is blocking sustainable energy implementation at community level, and highlighting opportunities to be explored to improve action in these areas.

Networking action to involve Local Governments in the EU and international energy and climate debate

The next event scheduled for this is the LG Action session during the Hamburg City Climate Conference on 17 November 2009. Join us there and share your views!

3. Stay informed and get involved
